Cronin's Skull and Bones.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—It has been arranged that one of the first incidents after the full jury has been secured in the Cronin case, will be the exhibition in court of the skull and bones of the right hand of the body found in the catch basin. They will be used for the identification of the body as that of Dr. Cronin.

Another Big Express Robbery.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 18.—News of another big express robbery in Alabama has just leaked out. It involves about $5000, and occurred at Millsport, Lamar county, about a week ago, but the matter has been kept quiet till yesterday, when Walter Abercomb, a young man, was brought to this city by a detective and charged with the robbery. The agent at Millsport had in his possession certain packages which were worth about $6,000. By some means the robber learned of it and made his haul. The agent was in the office at night when the robber entered, covered him with a pistol and made him hand over the money. No further particulars can be learned. The express people think they have the thief, but say they want to collect more evidence before they talk.

A Dishonest Postoffice Clerk.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 18.—William L. Jordan, son of Postmaster A. Jordan, of Manchester, and clerk in that office, has been arrested on a charge of robbing the mails. Losses of money sent through this office have been frequently reported to the department at Washington of late, and two inspectors were sent here to work the case up. A decoy letter containing money was mailed on the train, and when Jordan was arrested the notes were found on his person and he made a full confession of his misdeeds. He was held in $2,000 bonds for his appearance at a preliminary examination to-morrow. The young man is well connected and moved in good society.

Imprisoned for Life.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Oct. 18.—David Silas has been found guilty of murdering Ed. Stanford, his brother-in-law, and his punishment was fixed at imprisonment for life. His brothers, Joe and Albert, indicted with him for complicity in the crime, pleaded guilty to manslaughter. Joe was given fourteen years and Albert twenty years' sentence.

A Female Incendiary.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 18.—At 7 o'clock this evening Mrs. Mary Callahan was detected setting fire to apartments in the old Allen block occupied by T. J. Cluney. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done. The woman was arrested. The only known reason for the act was her enmity for Cluney. The block is full of tenants, and had it burned there would doubtless have been loss of life.

Business Block Destroyed.

VIRGINIA, Ill., Oct. 18.—One whole block, with the exception of eight badly damaged brick store rooms, was destroyed before the fire of yesterday could be got under control. Loss, $30,000.

The Threshing Machine Again.

LIMA, Ohio, Oct. 18. — A threshing machine boiler exploded on the farm of W. Hanson, one mile north of St. Mary's, instantly killing Perry Zigler and fatally injuring Jos. Silvers, and badly scalding Jake Heinbern and another man whose name is not learned.

A New York Fire.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Fire early in the morning in a three-storey building, corner of Seventh avenue and 135th street, burned out the upper store used by Company B of the seventy-first regiment. Two families living in the adjoining house escaped in their night clothes. Loss $10,000.

A Case of Small-pox.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 18.—Investigation develops the fact that instead of 100 cases of small-pox on Point Pelee Island near Sandusky, as reported yesterday, there is but one case. The schoolmaster of the island is the victim, and he is much isolated.

Masquerading in Mail Attire.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 13.—A pretty black haired, black eyed young woman, evidently about twenty years old, was arrested at Cliquot on Wednesday night while tending bar in a saloon, dressed as a man. She appeared in that town on Tuesday and at once applied for work at the saloon of a man named Smith, and was promptly engaged as bar keeper. Suspicion was aroused by her woman's voice, which she could not disguise. She was not surprised at being arrested, and took matters coolly. Her antecedents and name are not known. She says she assumed the disguise to escape from her lover, who is a horse thief. She is in jail.

Five Indians to be Hanged.

TUCSON, Ari., Oct. 18.—A special from Florence says five Apache Indians, tried and convicted for murder, were sentenced to be hanged on Wednesday. Three were charged with the murder of Diehl two years ago, and two had to answer for the murder of Jones. These Indians were all tried in the U.S. court. Two were sentenced to death and the others to terms of imprisonment at Columbus, Ohio. On appeal to the supreme court it was decided the U. S. courts had no jurisdiction and now all have to swing.

Maggie Mitchell Married.

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—The Herald says Miss Maggie Mitchell, the popular actress, and the leading manager, Charles Abbott, were married June 13th last, at the residence of the bride, at Long Branch. A Brooklyn special to the Globe says that yesterday Miss Mitchell admitted to a local amateur actress she was married just before her departure for Europe this summer.

Bound to Kill Some One.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 18. — At Gross Tile, La., to-day, John Marl was murdered by Henry Desolby. It is alleged that Desolby came to town with the expressed intention of killing Henry Wilbert, manager of the Rosedale Lumber Co., but not finding him concluded to kill Marl, who was Wilbert's foreman. Desolby was arrested.

U. S. Pensioners.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The annual report of the Commissioner of Pensions shows that 489,725 pensioners were on the list at the close of the fiscal year; that these received during the year $88,275,113.28. Since 1861 there have been filed 1,248,146 pension claims, of which 789,121 were allowed. During that period there have been paid in pensions $1,052,218,413.17.

A Determined Suicide.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Mrs. Anna Rudolph, 29 years of age, committed suicide at her residence, 416 East Eleventh Street, yesterday. She purchased sufficient rubber tubing to reach from the gas pipe to her bed. When her sister entered her room this morning she found her dead in bed with the gas turned on and the tubing stuck down her throat, with one hand clutching it to keep it in position. The cause of the deed was sickness and unpleasant married relations.

Charge of Manslaughter Dismissed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—The charge of manslaughter against Thomas Driscoll, gripman, of the car on which Mrs. Margaret H. Thoney, an aged lady, was fatally crushed a few days ago, was dismissed to-day, Driscoll having been exonerated by the coroner's jury.

Death Sentence Postponed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—The passing of the death sentence on ex-Police Officer Wallace, convicted of the murder of Albert, went over to-day until next Friday, pending motion for a new trial.

Bark Ada in Distress.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—The Swedish bark Ada, from Port Townsend for Monte Vido, with lumber, put into Honolulu Oct. 10th in a leaky condition. She was 56 days out from Port Townsend, and sprung a leak on Aug. 5th, and then again on Sept. 15th and 26th.

Another Collier.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18. — Captain Blackburn, formerly in command of the steamer Umatilla, has chartered the International company's steamer Montserrat, to run in the Sound coal trade for the Oregon Improvement Company.

A Wrecked Crew Returns Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—The steamer Newbern, from Mexican ports, to-day brought the crew of the American schooner Augustus, which was wrecked a few weeks ago on the Lower California coast. The party consisted of the captain, two mates, cook and four men.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—Rev. Dr. Thomas Frederick Davies was to-day consecrated bishop of the diocese of Eastern Michigan. The ceremony occupied several hours in St. Peter's church in this city, of which Dr. Davies has been pastor for many years. A distinguished company of bishops, priests, deacons and laymen assisted.

A Portland Murder.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 18.—Young James McDevett, who was shot by the colored porter, H. A. Gibbs, a week ago, died this afternoon. Gibbs is still at large.

The Marine Conference.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The Marine conference met at 10 o'clock, with Admiral Franklin in the chair, and resumed consideration of article 5 of International regulations. Hall, of Great Britain, proposed that the rule providing that lights on vessels be placed three feet apart, be amended by inserting the words six feet, and that these vessels carry two black balls by day instead of three. Several other amendments were offered. All those will be printed and considered at some future time. Article 7 was taken up. The delegate from Norway discussed the proper position of lights mentioned in the article. He was followed by Hall of Great Britain. No more amendments being offered, article 6 was read. Delegate Hall offered an amendment providing that all ships over 100 feet in length when at anchor should be required to carry a light, to be 15 feet lower than that at the head. Hall's amendment caused a long discussion. Article 9 was then taken up. A discussion ensued upon the question of devising some means by which direction in which a pilot boat was moving could be indicated. For this a number of plans were suggested but without reaching any conclusion. The conference adjourned until Monday morning.

The Trial of Father McFadden at Maryboro.

Tramway Employes Threaten to Inaugurate a General Strike.

Attorney-General Martin Says Government will Further Any Measure Looking to Strictly Local Home Rule.

FATHER M'FADDEN'S TRIAL.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Nearly two hundred additional policemen arrived at Maryborough from Dublin this morning, and though the popular excitement continued, the court proceeded with the work of selecting a jury to try Father McFadden and his associates for the murder of Policeman Martin. The court room was filled with police, and the indignant parishioners of Father McFadden, whose violence yesterday compelled the court to adjourn, were excluded. The main object of the crown attorney appears to be to blacken the character of the accused priest, and to destroy his popularity with his people. The admission made to-day by one of the crown witnesses, a police official, who took part in the fighting in which the police inspector lost his life, is regarded as of the highest importance by the counsel for the defence. This man admitted that before Martin was struck at all he saw Father McFadden with blood running down his face, evidently from wounds in the head.

THE HOME RULE QUESTION.

Attorney-General Webster, in addressing a meeting of Conservatives at Ryde this evening, made the statement that if the Irish parliament for which the home-rulers were clamoring was intended to give authority over strictly local matters only, the Government stood ready not alone to concede it, but was prepared to further any measure looking to that end. He did not think that Parnell and his supporters in Ireland, whatever might be said of his English allies, would remain long satisfied with such a reform alone.

UNGRATEFUL EMPLOYES.

The employees of the London Tramway Co., whose working hours were recently reduced by the voluntary action of their employers, now threaten to inaugurate a general strike if their wages are not increased.

PANIC IN CHEAPSIDE.

The crowded thoroughfare of Cheapside was thrown into a panic this afternoon. A horse attached to a green-grocer's cart received a trifling hurt from the pole of another vehicle, and becoming crazed with pain, his driver lost all control of him, and he run amuck for a long distance, dashing through and over everything that blocked his way. Many people were injured, two quite seriously.

"JACK THE RIPPER"

Reported to Have Turned Up in Hamburg

And Fulfilled His Recent Threat of Mutilating Another Unfortunate Woman.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—An evening paper prints a despatch from Hamburg, Germany, saying that the mutilated body of a woman was found in Fleusburg, a suburb of the city, under circumstances and surroundings suggesting the probability that "Jack the Ripper" has transferred his operations to the continent.

STAVELY HILL, M. P.

A Common-Sense Opinion on the Behring's Sea Question from the Member for Staffordshire.

A gentleman of wide information in regard to Great Britain and her colonies, an extensive traveler, a keen student of men and affairs, and a parliamentarian grown old in political harness is Mr. Stavely Hill, for the past twenty-one years the representative of South Staffordshire in the Imperial House of Commons, and who is at present a guest at the Driard.

Although for the last seven or eight years Mr. Hill has spent much of his time in Canada, this is his first visit to the coast. He comes, as he remarked to a COLONIST reporter last evening, to complete his westward experience, see the country and obtain information in regard to questions of national interest, notably the Behring's Sea question.

While the member for South Staffordshire has never before honored Victoria with a visit, he is far from unknown here. The interest which he took in Canadian affairs during the excitement of the last Northwest rebellion, and his subsequent motion to decorate the Canadian soldiery with the medals of that campaign have not been forgotten. As Judge Advocate-General for the British navy, as a distinguished member of the bar, and as one who took a leading part in presenting the claims of Manitoba and the Northwest to the world, he is also well known.

Having great confidence in the future of Canada, Mr. Hill has invested largely in land in the Northwest, his big farm, Oxley Ranch, on the Bow River between Calgary and McLeod, being one of the finest in Alberta. It was he who first shipped Canadian cattle to England, thus introducing an industry that is now assuming gigantic proportions. In addition to his private land investments, he is a leading member of the Manitoba Land & Investment Co., and a prominent shareholder in the Manitoba & North Western Railway.

In his interesting book, "From Home to Home," Mr. Hill has given to the reading public a well written account of his travels in the Northwest prior to the construction of the C.P.R. On one occasion, while on this trip so graphically told in his book, Mr. Hill and his companions had a narrow escape from death in a fierce snowstorm which overtook them among the foothills of the Rockies. They had started out to inspect a large area of country, and expecting to meet with big game the men had taken with them only sufficient "grub" for a couple of days. No provision had been made for mountain storms, one of which enveloped the party in its cold, white mantle in the night, completely blocking further progress and holding them prisoners for four days. For two days the travelers lived on chicken, unrelieved by any side dishes; for two more they had nothing to eat. Then fortunately the storm abated, and they were able to return to civilization fully convinced of the fact that they had had a "close call."

When asked for his opinion on the Behring Sea question Mr. Hill said last evening to THE COLONIST representative: "I am especially anxious to get all details bearing on it while I am here. As far as I understand the case at present the Imperial Government cannot fail to take the strongest action in resenting as high-handed a proceeding as I have ever heard of. If a private ship had acted as this American revenue cutter has done there would be no one that would not call such action by its proper name—piracy. As the deed of a government it seems even worse. The question was not discussed before the House adjourned, and consequently no action has yet been taken. It is probable, however, that something will be done before next session. If the secretary of foreign affairs does not take immediate action he will without doubt be called to strict account by the Commons. Canadians are bound to resent very strongly the laxity of interest thus far shown by the home government, and the question is particularly one that Britain should not lose a day in acting in."

Mr. Hill, as a member of the Manitoba Land and Investment Company, is a good authority on the value of investments, and he says that none better is offered than in Victoria and Vancouver. Esquimalt harbor is, to his mind, the best on the coast. He expresses considerable surprise at the non-calling at Victoria of the China steamers, remarking that while it might be impossible at present to make a stop long enough to land freight, etc., "Victorians are surely entitled to their mails first hand."

CAPITAL NOTES.

Alberta Colonization Railway Company.

A Line Through Crow's Nest Pass to the Pacific.

Dr. Powell's Superannuation as Indian Superintendent—A. W. Vowell His Successor.

(From our own Correspondent).

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—Massue, Conservative, was elected for Richelieu to-day by 175 majority. He trebled Labelle's majority at the general election.

Dr. Powell, superintendent of British Columbia Indians, was superannuated on Oct. 1st. It is understood that A. W. Vowell, provincial gold commissioner, succeeds him.

Application will be made to parliament to incorporate the Alberta Colonization railway to build a line from Cassels, on the Canadian Pacific, across the Bow river and through the Crow's Nest Pass to the Pacific ocean.

The Baptist convention had a lively discussion to-day on the question of tax exemption. The debate is not concluded.

THE NEW RIFLE LEAGUE.

The Proposed Conditions Under Which the League is to be Formed.

The following are the proposed conditions for the Canadian Military Rifle league, which has for its object the encouraging of good shooting. The idea has originated in the fertile brain of Private W. R. Pringle, of the Victoria Rifles, Montreal, the gentleman who got up the recent big telegraphic shooting match. It can only be hoped that riflemen throughout the Dominion will take the matter up, as it is certainly calculated to add to the number of first-class shots Canada now possesses.

The object of this league to be to encourage rifle practice and to induce the old shots to teach the young, and also to make it an object to attend practice.

Teams—The teams to be limited to regimental teams. For the season of 1890 the teams to be composed of ten men each, but for the season of 1891 to be twenty men, and for 1892 twenty-five to fifty men, and so on until whole regiments are on the team. Each regiment may enter any number of teams, and it will not be necessary to have the same men on the team each match.

Entrance fee—The entrance fee will be $10 per team, to be devoted to paying incidental expenses and to purchase a trophy and other prizes. The said entrance fee to be forwarded to the hon. sec. of the Montreal Rifle Association, who will hold them in trust until a league secretary and treasurer are appointed, and until the council and executive of the league are elected. On receipt of said fees the hon. secretary of the M. R. A. shall acknowledge the receipt in the Canadian Militia Gazette, as well as by post.

Ranges, position and number of shots—The ranges and position will be 200 yards (standing or kneeling), and 500 and 600 yards (any position with head to target) seven shots at each. No pool targets or sighting shots allowed.

Dates—The matches to be fired on Saturday afternoons throughout the season, the dates of which will be fixed by the executive council, and the results to be exchanged by telegraph and the team winning the greatest number of matches to be winners of trophy and the other prizes to go to the next highest teams.

Telegraph charges—The telegraph charges will be reduced to a minimum, and it is estimated that the rate will not be more than 50 cents per team per match, as it is intended to use a cypher.

The council—The council to be composed of the captains of each team.

The executive—The executive will be elected by the council, and will be composed of a certain number of said council, the said number to be decided later.

President—The president will be elected annually.

Rifle—The Snider.

Range officers—Range officers will be appointed by each team, whose duty it will be to watch the scoring and marking, and to be able to vouch for everything being correct.

The league—It will be necessary to have this league formed and ready for work by 1st April, 1890, in order to give plenty of time to make the final arrangements.

Alteration of conditions—The foregoing conditions are not to be considered as final, and may be altered by the executive of league when formed.

Important notice—No notice will be taken of notification to enter a team unless accompanied by the entrance fee, as the league, to be a success, has got to be worked on a proper financial basis.

Suggestions—Any suggestions that riflemen may have to make for the improvement of the foregoing conditions please forward to editor Canadian Militia Gazette.

SIGHTED A WRECK.

In All Probability It Was the Whaling Bark Alaska.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15. — Capt. Regnier, of the French bark Iton, which arrived October 10, from Hong Kong, has reported to the French consulate that on the 25th of September last, when in latitude 47 deg. 46 min. north and latitude 162 deg. 35 min. west, he saw a half-sunken vessel. Portions of the deck and mast, painted white, were all that was above water. The mast was broken off about twelve feet from the deck. Captain Regnier inclines to the belief that the vessel was a whaler. The only whaler that this could be is the bark Alaska.

COMPTOIR MEN IN JAIL.

Life Imprisonment for Men Only Technically Guilty.

PARIS, Oct. 17.—Attachments were issued yesterday against the property of nine of the directors of the bankrupt Comptoir d'Escompte, which was ruined by the failure of the copper corner. Six of the responsible directors of the institution are now imprisoned, having been convicted of violating the banking law in advancing the funds of the bank as loans upon copper certificates. The directors and accountants were sentenced to pay the liquidators of the bank for the benefit of its creditors the sum of $3,800,000, and to stand committed until the amount was paid. This means a life sentence to most of those convicted, as they were themselves ruined by the calamity their illegal action brought upon the bank. Several of the directors who are involved in the sentence took no active part in the management of the institution, and though technically guilty with the rest, really know nothing of the recklessness with which the money of the institution was staked upon a gambling venture. Efforts are being made to secure relief for these men from the terms of the sentence, and they will in all probability be successful.

A LAND REFORMER.

The nationalization of land is a subject which is occupying the attention of many thinking men in these days. It is believed by many that private property in land contravenes natural right, and that it would be best both for the individual and for the nation if land became the property of the State. How to bring this change about is what puzzles this class of theorists. Some of them, having regard for the rights of their fellow-citizens and believing that the eighth commandment is still in force, wish to transfer the land to the State without doing any essential injustice to its present owners and those who have liens upon it for money advanced to the proprietors. Henry George, as our readers have seen, would cut the Gordian knot at a single blow. He would have no consideration for those who are so unfortunate as to have expended their money in the purchase of land. To those who had invested their earnings in building houses, purchasing ships, in buying stocks of one kind and another, he would give ample protection, but the man who had inherited or bought land he treats as one who had committed an unpardonable offence against society. He punishes him by confiscation. He takes from him the rent of the land and refuses to give him one single cent by way of compensation.

But all land socialists or single tax reformers are not like Henry George. They do not believe that property, when it is in land, is robbery, and they do not try to convince the public that stealing a man's land is not theft. Mr. F. J. Soper is one of these. He tells the world in the October number of the Westminster Review "How to nationalize the land." His theory differs in many respects from that of Henry George. He would have the nation take complete possession of all the land. He would not leave a single acre of it under private control. According to him the land in agricultural districts includes the buildings, fences and all improvements. The state must take possession of the whole farm. In other cases he says it is not proposed that the nation should acquire or hold buildings, whether residential, manufacturing or mercantile. In cities the nation must content itself with the ownership of the land alone. The ceremony of taking possession would be very simple. The government would issue a proclamation that after a certain day all ground rents and rents for cultivated land must be paid to it. It would settle with the owners and claimants afterwards. This settlement might be rather difficult in some cases, but one Socialistic philosopher thinks nothing of a little difficulty. When the Government had settled, to its satisfaction, who previous to its appropriating it, had a right to the land, it would proceed with the work of compensating the late owners. It would reserve to itself 20 per cent. of the gross rental of the land for "cost of management, losses and other contingencies." Then it would divide the remaining 80 per cent. among the former owners in the shape of annuities. To use his own words: "Annuities payable from the land revenue of the country to the amount of the balance (80 per cent.) not exceeding the net income now received from the land, would be secured to the proprietors." This change, he thinks, would be accomplished without the slightest disturbance. After the forfeiture of the land things would go on as quietly and as peaceably as before it was effected.

But Mr. Soper does not intend that the state shall go on paying the landowners their annuities for ever. Not by any manner of means. He, too, has his little scheme of throwing the burden of compensation off the shoulders of the state. He, in the first place, appropriates 20 per cent. of the rental. Then he calculates that the land will increase in value every year to the extent of some £2,000,000 sterling. He expects to save some £3,000,000 by buying off the mortgages with money borrowed at a low rate of interest. Then the fees paid into the public land office will, at a low calculation, amount to say £5,000,000 more. He seems to forget that he charged the land twenty per cent for cost of management when he set out. This other five millions is evidently for work already paid for. This does not appear to be altogether honest. But the receiver has the public good always in mind, so that a little extortion more or less should not shock any one. He hopes by the addition of land values, by the saving of interest and by the fees paid by those doing business in the land office to pay the whole expense of the land administration, so that he will have his twenty per cent to the good, to be used in lightening the burdens of the people. This, he calculates, will amount to one-fourth of what is now the imperial taxation. This is part of his plan of robbing Peter to pay Paul, but it is not the whole of it. He proposes that the annuities paid to land proprietors be in form of three per cent stock. This is to be subject to an annual diminuition of three-pence per cent of stock. The first year the dividend shall be £3 per cent of stock, the second year £2 19s. 9d.; for the third year £2 19s. 6d.; and so on, diminishing annually till the last three pence is paid, when it will close altogether." The saving made by taking these three-pences from the annuities will amount to £350,000, which, of course, goes into the public treasury to lessen still further the burden of taxation.

F. J. Soper calculates that in this way the whole amount of imperial taxation would be extinguished in thirty years, and then the surplus could be applied in lightening the burden which the local ratepayers have to carry. In about half a century, he computes, both imperial and local taxation would be removed. That is to say, it would be paid, as it is paid now, but the land would be required to bear the whole burden.

These computations are made on the supposition that everything will go on smoothly and that the owners of land will quietly submit in the first place to be fleeced by the state, and in the second that those who make their living off the land will be content to bear all the burdens of the state. It does not appear to us at all probable that Mr. Soper's scheme would work as well in practice as it does on paper. Human nature will, thirty, fifty, or a hundred years from this, be pretty much the same as it is now. The men who pay the taxes will have votes and will be able to influence the legislation of the country. This scheme of making land owners and land cultivators pay all the taxes would, no doubt, appear not exactly fair to the land owners and land cultivators. They would naturally conclude that there is other property in the country which ought to bear its share of taxes, and other people who enjoy the benefits which Government confers who should be required to pay for those benefits. Politicians might arise who would tell them they were ill-used and exhort them to seek redress by constitutional means. They would be just as greedily listened to as reformers are now. And when the general election comes round men would be sent to Parliament pledged to effect a reform in the system of taxation so that the burden would be distributed more fairly. Long before the fifty years had expired it would be found that the revenue from land had greatly decreased, and the Government would be obliged to return to old modes of taxation. We hardly think that Mr. Soper will be allowed the opportunity of putting his scheme into operation. But if he were we are quite sure that he and his fellow theorists would be greatly disappointed. Men can never get clear of a burden by merely lifting it from one shoulder to the other.

THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE.

The principle of co-operation is being recognized by the nations of the world. Men of the different countries are finding out that there are some matters in which it is best they should act in concert—that rules and regulations instead of being national as heretofore should be international. The regulation of shipping is one of these matters. The ocean is the great highway of nations. Ships of all nationalities traverse it. It is evident that the rules of the road, so to speak, should be uniform, should be such as all understand, and all are bound to act upon. A good set of international regulations, strictly enforced, would have the effect of preventing great loss both of life and of property. A uniformity of regulations regarding the seaworthiness of vessels, the limit at which loading becomes unsafe, when it is criminal to refuse aid to vessels in distress and to neglect saving life and property, and various other matters could not fail to result in much good to all the commercial nations of the world. The International Maine Conference which opened in Washington on the 16th inst., has been convened for the purpose of forming regulations or ordinances which will be applicable to the ships of all nations on every sea, and in every quarter of the world. It is attended by the representatives of Great Britain, the United States, France, Germany, Italy, Denmark, Belgium, Norway, Russia, Austria, Spain, Brazil, Chili, Venezuela, Uruguay, Guatemala, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Mexico, China, Japan and Hawaii. The Conference is advisory, not legislative. But it is pretty certain that any regulation which the majority of the representatives agree upon will be adopted by the Legislatures and form part of the law of the land. The Conference will most probably continue in session until the 1st of January next, as its limitation expires at that time.

The following are the subjects to be discussed. It is rather a long programme, but every person who understands anything about shipping will admit that they are all important.

1. Marine signals or other means of plainly indicating the direction in which vessels are moving in fog, mist, falling snow and thick whether, and at night rules for the prevention of collisions and rules of the road.
2. Regulations to determine the seaworthiness of vessels.
3. Draught to which vessels should be restricted when loaded.
4. Uniform regulations regarding the designating and marking of vessels.
5. Saving life and property from shipwreck.
6. Necessary qualifications for officers and seamen, including tests for sight and color blindness.
7. Lanes for steamers on frequented routes.
8. Night signals for communicating information at sea.
9. Warnings of approaching storms.
10. Reporting, marking and removing dangerous wrecks and obstructions to navigation.
11. Notice of dangers to navigation; notice of changes in lights, buoys and other day and night marks.
12. A uniform system of buoys and beacons.
13. The establishment of a permanent international maritime commission.

This is what the New York Marine Register says about the programme of the Conference:

The subjects for discussion proposed by the American delegates to the Conference are really those that must in the end be adopted by maritime nations. They are all for the sole purpose of saving life and property from shipwreck and for no other purpose. They do not interfere in any way with trade regulations or commercial competition, or with any laws, national or local, that govern the use or employment of vessels in honest business. They have simply an end in view that all objectors will before many years admit to be right. This end is a great one, and the means to reach it are not easily secured and must vary as circumstances decree. With the gain of two or three of them the world must for the present be satisfied, and it is sincerely to be hoped that the Maritime Conference may secure these as the outcome of its labors.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

THE Times cannot bring itself to believe that "out of nothing nothing comes." It is making a tremendous ado about nothing and reproaches us because we do not join in the outcry. Anything more ridiculous than the position which the Times takes cannot be imagined. It can find nothing to say against the Government, and endeavors, literally, to create ammunition with which to attack it. Was there ever an opposition organ reduced to such straits? The very poorest of them has something that has the appearance, at any rate, of being solid to carry on the war with, but the Times is forced to draw upon its imagination and the imagination of its correspondents for its political ammunition. The Government will stand a long while if its opponents have nothing heavier to pelt it with than the airy nothings created by the Ottawa liar and utilized, for want of something better, by our Yates street contemporary.

A VOICE FROM THE FAR NORTH.

To the Editor,—This district which was brought so prominently before the world some 15 months ago, has, since the interest then aroused began to flag, been gradually dropping out of notice, and is now, I suppose, almost, if not entirely, forgotten. Considering the circumstances under which it became so extensively known, it has occurred to me that a brief review of its history since the return of the relief party might not be uninteresting to some of your readers. It is unnecessary to revert to former times. For several years the mere mention of the Skeena was suggestive of dark deeds.

The decision of the Provincial Government in appointing a resident magistrate at Hazelton was a wise one, and the selection of Captain Fitzstubbs was a happy one. It was certainly the beginning of a new and brighter era for the Skeena. Lawlessness received a shock by the advent of the Police Superintendent and his specials. This was followed by a kind of stupor. Time, however, the great restorer, was faithful as usual. Consciousness returned attended by vigor and resolution. But during the time of stupefaction a change had come over the scene. Lawlessness was now confronted by what was called "law"—not a shadow, but a real thing in the form of an English gentleman and two sturdy assistants. Lawlessness stood aghast! What was this? Quite a new feature. It was alive, too. It moved and talked. But this was not all. It seemed to have a master's eye. This was too much for Lawlessness. He could stand a trifling addition to the scenery, so long as it did not prove a barrier to his goings out and comings in; but a master, never! He would try what stuff this new phenomenon was made of. He did try, and found, to his astonishment, that it was tough and unyielding. He tried again, but with no better result. It then occurred to him that there might be something in the world stronger than himself. Could it be the law? He would have another tussle with that unwelcome intruder. This led to a series of struggles in every one of which the whilom Chief was worsted. Then he sang "truce," promising to submit and convert his sword into a policeman's baton.

And now a wave of order came gently rolling on, kindly and mercifully touching the spots affected by the leprosy that had so long prevailed, and receding only when the disorder was removed and the spots could be presented to the public gaze without fear of being called unclean. And this law which was so much feared was found to be a benefactor—a healer of men's minds and bodies. Moreover, it showed itself anxious to raise the people to a higher platform than any to which they had hitherto attained. Captain Fitzstubbs has been during his time here indefatigable in his efforts to teach and instruct them, and anyone having a regard for truth, who has carefully noted the changes that have been effected in the Skeena district during the past fifteen months, must acknowledge that he has done much to raise the people morally, intellectually and physically. Where the missionaries have failed he has succeeded.

At the present time Indians and whites are living together—not as formerly, hating and dreading one another, but well disposed and anxious that full confidence should exist between them. Captain Fitzstubbs is now about to proceed to Victoria. He will carry with him the respect, the gratitude and the affection of the community over which he has so ably presided. To say that he is regretted would be to express but half of what is felt. Were it not that we all hope to have the pleasure of soon welcoming him back, the day of his departure would be most keenly regretted. Apart from the pleasure of having him as a friend and neighbor, he cannot be spared. The work he has done cannot yet stand alone. The potter has shaped the vessel, but the clay is still soft and plastic. If it is to be preserved, it must still be carefully guarded. Nor must it even pass into the hands of a strange potter. A new hand might spoil its proportions. If the Provincial Government are anxious to preserve the peace of the Skeena district, which has a population of over two thousand people, they will give Captain Fitzstubbs no rest until he has started for the north.

Jno. Field,
Anglican Missionary, Skeena Dist't.
Upper Skeena, Oct. 1, 1889.

BURGOYNE BAY NOTES.

Archdeacon Scriven preached to a large congregation in the Burgoyne church, Sunday last, on the subject of "Prayer."

A good attendance is expected at the missionary meeting of 17th inst., to be conducted by Revs. Hall and Bowell.

Miss Nellie Wilson and Miss Katie Furness, who wrote at the late entry examination, were both successful to a meritorious degree, taking an average of over 63 per cent. Only one other has so honored this school since starting, viz., John Maxwell, who passed several years ago, but whose usefulness was prematurely shortened by death. Not only are the parents pleased at such honors, but the community as well, and it is hoped still higher victories await these young ladies. Each obtained a provincial roll of honor last June, the former for proficiency and the latter for deportment, not even losing one mark for that year.

Quite a company of Salt Springites attended the Saanich show, and were generally pleased.

Home again from the city are Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, and Mrs. and Miss Furness, and in honor of the happy ceremony performed for the former two on the 18th inst., the steamer was gay with bunting, "And all went merry as a marriage bell."

Skins on Fire

Agonizing, itching, burning, and bleeding Eczema in its worst stages. A raw sore from head to feet. Hair gone. Doctors and hospitals fail. Tried everything. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies for $6.

Cured by Cuticura

I am cured of a loathsome disease, eczema, in its worst stage. I tried different doctors and been through the hospital, but all to no purpose. The disease covered my whole body from the top of my head to the soles of my feet. My hair all came out, leaving me a complete raw sore. After trying everything I heard of your Cuticura Remedies, and after using three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, with Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, I find myself cured at the cost of about $6. I would not be without the Cuticura Remedies in my house, as I find them useful in many cases, and I think they are the only skin and blood medicines.

ISAAC H. GERMAN,
Wurtzboro, N. Y.

Burning and Itching

I was sick in the fall of 1888 with a burning and itching so bad that in three weeks I was covered with a rash, and could not sleep nights or work days. Some doctors thought it might be salt rheum (eczema), and said they had never seen anything like it before. I received no help from any of them, or from any medicine that I could get hold of until I tried your Cuticura Remedies. After three weeks' use I was able to work, and kept getting better, until I am now entirely cured. I recommend them to all suffering with skin disease.

C. E. OSMER, Taftsville, Vt.

Most Intense Itching

I have used the Cuticura Remedies successfully for my baby, who was afflicted with eczema, and had such intense itching that he got no rest day or night. The itching is gone, and my baby is cured, and is now a healthy, rosy-cheeked boy.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

SPRINTING.

To-day Watson, of Victoria, and Peck, of Nanaimo, will meet at Wellington in a half-mile race for $500 a side. The Victoria boy is now champion of the coast, and he will do his best to defend the title. His opponent is a strong favorite at home. Both are fully ready for the race, and it will doubtless be a close one. A large number of Victorians will go up by this morning's train to see the fun.

FOOTBALL.

There will be a game of football (Rugby) to-day at Beacon Hill, commencing at 3 o'clock. A good attendance is particularly requested.

The Islanders' (Association) football club will meet St. Paul's school, past and present, at Beacon Hill to-day.

Game will be commenced at 2:30 o'clock sharp, the following composing the teams:

Islanders—Prof. Foster, goal; McConnan, Partridge, back; Hibben, Johnson, half back; Martin, Dowlen, Spring, McConnan, Northcott, Sutherland, forwards.

St. Paul's School—Rev. W. W. Bolton, goal; Howard, Miller, back; Alexander, Rev. Stephenson, half back; Eickhoff, Bunting, Miller, Fisher, Innes, Scott, forwards.

HERE AND THERE.

Over $1,500 has been staked on the coming lacrosse match between Westminster and Vancouver, and the bets are in most cases even, provided the same teams play on the 26th that contested during the fair and that no change is made in the personnel of either field force.

Prof. Foster's athletic rooms have been fitted with the new arc light and are being furnished and equipped in the very best style.

Extensive preparations are being made for the grand tournament to be given in about a month by the members of the Victoria Athletic Club.

A championship quoit match for $500 aside between Wm. Bowater and Tom Muncie, will be contested at East Wellington to-day.

The Amities held a meeting last evening, and closed up their affairs for the season of 1889.

INLAND AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.

TO THE EDITOR: I see in the Times of the 18th inst. an item stating that a meeting is called for the evening of October 31st for the purpose of forming an Island Agricultural Association. I wish to call the attention of the gentlemen who have taken this matter in hand to the fact that on that evening the citizens of this city will tender a banquet to His Excellency the Governor-General.

Would it not be as well to alter the date of this meeting, as no doubt many will go to the banquet who would wish to be present at the agricultural association meeting?

She's All Right!

News was received yesterday that the cannery steamer Alert, which went ashore at Dod's Narrows with a scow-load of coal, got off safely without the assistance of the Yosemite. The coal was lost.

Victoria's Death Rate.

The statement in our Ottawa telegram yesterday morning is misleading. The total number of deaths last month was 23, and not 28 as stated. So far this month, we are informed by the health officer, Dr. Milne, the number of interments are only five. Victoria's annual death rate, with the exception of one or two cities is the lowest in Canada.

Work Progressing.

Work on the Indian department steamer, now building at Spratt's wharf, is being pushed forward rapidly. All the braces are now in position as well as the stanchions for the bulwarks, while the boat is sheeted inside. As soon as the outside sheeting is on, which will be in about two weeks, the boat will be ready for launching. The boilers and machinery are now well under way at the Albion Iron Works.

Hermann Coming.

Mr. Berrie Jarrett, business manager for Hermann, the world's greatest magician, arrived from over the Sound last evening for the purpose of completing arrangements for Hermann's appearance here on the evenings of Wednesday and Thursday next. It is now nine years since the man of tricks and illusions last visited Victoria. Hermann and his wife are now doing Howe & Bell's circuit of Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver. They opened to an $800 house in Portland on Thursday. Ten people accompany the great juggler and assist in the illusions, notably his exposition of spiritualism, although he and his wife alone appear before the public.

Fireworks Galore.

See Kim, an enterprising resident of Cormorant street, has about completed arrangements for a grand pyrotechnical exhibition to be given in the Caledonian grounds next Wednesday evening. The fireworks include some of the most wonderful devices ever seen even in China—the home of the firecracker and its more interesting brother—and the display will, without doubt, be one of the finest ever seen on the coast, and certainly far superior to the best ever before seen in this city. If possible a first-class band of music will be secured for the evening, when, if the weather permits, the spectacle will doubtless attract a big crowd. *tf

Modern Railway Travel.

The vestibuled trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, running daily between St. Paul and Minneapolis and Milwaukee and Chicago, are the perfection of modern railway equipment, and are unsurpassed in the world. They consist of elegant day coaches, Pullman's latest and best sleeping cars and the finest dining cars in the country. These trains are lighted by electricity and heated by steam, and afford to the traveler every comfort and convenience to be had at the very best hotels. All classes of tickets are honored on these trains and the rates are no higher than by other lines. It is for this reason that discriminating travelers patronize this company and insist that their tickets read over its line, as they naturally want the best service for their money.

Mr. P. Gregg will conduct the young men's prayer meeting to-night, his address being upon "The young man who lacked only one thing."

On account of the unsuitability of the present Y. M. C. A. building they are not able to do much gymnasium work. When they get in the new rooms every thing will be well arranged and the work of a well appointed gymnasium can be done.

The Y. M. C. A. orchestra expect to commence practice this month.

Evening classes have been formed in connection with the Y. M. C. A., in penmanship, book keeping, elementary arithmetic, shorthand, mechanical drawing, and vocal music.

A Contradictory Report.

Two Indians who arrived by canoe from Hesquoit yesterday brought a report that the mate of the Japanese sealing schooner Adele had been lost overboard near Two Mountain pass during the latter part of August. Investigation of the report goes to show that it cannot be true. In the first place, no Indians are at present coming down from the pass who could bring the news; and in the second, the Adele was seen by the Wanderer not a month ago, when Capt. Steele, the mate, formerly captain of the Penelope and Winifred, was alive and well. It is probable that the Adele was not the schooner referred to at all, as the Indians appeared considerably mixed in the name. Capt. Steele's parents, who live here, have received no news of a mishap to their son.

Trade Notes.

With the salmon brought by the Sardonyx and Rithet on Thursday, the cargo of the Lebu was completed. Capt. Lewis expects to get away on Tuesday.

The Sardonyx shifted to Esquimalt yesterday to discharge the balance of her northern salmon into the J. H. Hustede.

Steamer Brick, which arrived on her regular trip from San Juan yesterday, brought seven tons of apples, eggs, chickens and rabbits.

Schooner Lottie, which came in from Mud Bay yesterday, had a large quantity of oats as well as a large number of wild geese, for Victoria dealers in game, on board.

It is expected that the German bark J. H. Hustede will get away for England on Wednesday or Thursday next.

Yesterday, the Rithet was busy discharging salmon into the Tythonus.

The Islander last evening brought a very much assorted cargo comprising one carload of whiskey, another of nails, a third of sheepskins and hides, and two of mixed merchandise.

The Defective Stovepipe.

At 7:30 o'clock last evening a telephone alarm of fire was sent in from King's bakery, Alfred street, and the alarm was also sounded by the operator on duty, who reported the fire clearly to the Tiger station. He then called the Deluge engine house to give them the same information, but the firemen were unable to hear distinctly owing to the noise made by the bell. A few seconds' delay was thus caused in the departure of the engine for the scene. The hose-cart got to the fire in good time, and found the blaze to proceed from the home of Mr. Fred. Williams, on Alfred street. An attachment was made with the hydrant, from which a good pressure was obtained.

The fire was quickly extinguished, but not before considerable damage had been done. It had its origin between the ceiling and the roof, through which the stovepipe passed. Mr. Williams and his family had just finished supper when they first saw the smoke, and they tried hard to extinguish the fire with buckets. Had not their supply of water been limited, in this they would have been successful.

A portion of the household effects was safely removed, but the greater part was left inside to be injured by fire and water to the amount of about $200. The building was owned by Mr. W. White, of the King's Head saloon, and was partially insured. No insurance was on the furniture. The total damage is fixed at $400.

Agnia Well Attended.

Little Lord Fauntleroy was witnessed by another good house at The Victoria last evening. The play ran more smoothly than on the opening night, and the prompter was not as audibly conspicuous as he was before. Every character appeared improved, and frequent applause was the rule. The play will be presented at a matinee performance this afternoon, and again this evening.

Business is Business.

Did you ever ask yourself what that means? It means that the commercial mind separates business from all social, secular, sectarian, or other considerations. It don't matter what a man believes, is, or thinks, so long as he sells good goods, and sells them cheap, people will go to him. We invite you to our store, to see the splendid stock now on hand of mens' youths' and boys' clothing, furnishing goods, etc. CAMERON, the cash clothier, 55 Johnson street.

He was a "Beat."

Last evening a young man of smooth face and stalwart frame entered the New England restaurant and, at the expense of a citizen to whom he told a melancholy tale of hunger, sat down to a full course dinner. He tasted the soup, just sampled the fish, and, after passing carelessly over the substantials, disposed of his dessert quietly and with the air of an epicure, stuck a toothpick in his teeth and sauntered out.

A few minutes later he again entered, this time in the company of a well-known music dealer, who called out to Mr. Young: "Just give this young fellow a meal and charge it to me. I'm in a hurry." The m. d. then turned up the street and Mr. Young turned to the man for an explanation, asking if he was not the same man who had just got up from the table.

He of the smooth face and stalwart frame admitted that he was, and explained that he had "struck" the last gentleman for four bits to get a bed. He didn't get the money, but the gentleman said he would see he got a meal.

"Why don't you go to work?" asked an interested witness of the scene.

"Can't get anything to do," was the response.

"There's the Johnson street sewer?"

"Oh, I wouldn't do that kind of work!"

The spectator at once sized up the young man and remarked to Mr. Young, "I think he's a beat. Hadn't we better call the police,"——

The word was enough. As soon as it was uttered the applicant was off, and unless he has decreased his speed since, it is probable that long before this he has come to the edge of the island and fallen off.

The amount was stated everywhere from $1 to $1,000, and so a COLONIST reporter, without delay enquired of the men how much they had unearthed. Their answers were terse, and in three cases out of four compressed into the remark, "Divil a bit."

100 CENTS IN THE DOLLAR.

An Annoying Practice on the O. R. & N. Co. Steamers—Canadian Money Subjected to a Heavy Discount.

In Victoria American money, silver and paper, is taken at par and commercial men and transportation companies are not particular how much they receive of it. But it is different on the other side of the line. Canadian silver is tabooed, and Canadian bills, whether they be of government or Bank of B. C. issue are looked upon with suspicion and discounted five per cent. at hotels and stores. It is somewhat strange that this should be the case, but it is so, and the fact that it is so is extremely aggravating to the Canadian who finds himself in Tacoma or Seattle with nothing but good Canadian money. It is not pleasant to have 100 cents only taken for 90 or 95 cents within 100 miles of Victoria. This difficulty may, however soon disappear with the establishment of branches of the Bank of B. C. in the Sound cities.

While there may be some excuse for the mercantile class charging a discount on Canadian bills, there certainly is none for the O. R. & N. Co. They have large business dealings with Victoria. Their passenger and freight trade with this port is constantly on the increase—and they are glad to get it. They are offering every inducement in the way of cheap rates to secure it. Notwithstanding this, the travelers who present Canadian bills that are at par in Victoria at their ticket office in Tacoma are insolently informed by their agent that they are "no good here," and if he has to take them he will discount them ten per cent. On the through steamer to Victoria better treatment might be expected but such is not the case. At the purser's office the other day, on the steamer North Pacific, Government issue notes were at first refused and then discounted five per cent. The purser gave as an excuse that the company would not take them and it cost him money, after arriving in Victoria, to travel over town in an endeavor to get them exchanged into American money. Even at the dock in Victoria Bank of B. C. bills have been refused at the purser's office for fare. This imposition on the public should not exist. A company having an office in Victoria has no right to insist on its employees fleecing travelers who present money which they can obtain 100 per cent. for at all times. It is hoped the O.R. & N. Co. will change their tactics in this respect. It will be simple justice to a large number of their important customers. A dollar of Canadian money is just as good to them as a dollar of American issue, and should be received at its full value.

THE TRAMWAY CO. MEETING.

A Large Gathering—The Cadboro Bay Road Route Sustained.

Nearly 3,500 shares were represented at the Tramway Co.'s meeting last evening. The shareholders assembled in strong force at Bourchier & Higgins' real estate rooms. They were called to order at 7.45 o'clock by Mr. Higgins, M.P.P. The proceedings were of a very interesting character. A resolution was moved by Mr. W. G. Cameron, seconded by Dr. Milne, to re-consider the action of the shareholders on the 30th July last, when they adopted as one of the routes a line from the city boundary to the Richmond road, and in lieu thereof to extend the line from Rock Bay bridge to Victoria West.

Mr. Dalby moved in amendment to re-consider the action of the shareholders of the 30th July, leaving the question of route to be determined by a subsequent resolution.

Remarks pro. and con. were made by ex-Mayor Fell, Mr. J. Angus, Mr. Cameron, Mr. Belyea, Mr. W. J. Taylor, Dr. Milne, Mr. Dalby, the president and others. The president said that the resolution was of a mischievous character and was calculated to open the whole question of routes. He added that both Victoria West and Esquimalt would get a tramway service within a few months.

The resolution was defeated by 2,864 noes to 680 ayes.

Mr. M. Cowan retired voluntarily from the board of directors and Alderman Wilson takes his place as the representative of the city.

Stock certificates were ordered to be issued to shareholders who had paid all their calls and the meeting broke up.

Progress of the Towns in the Mountains—Canmore to Become an Important Coal Shipping Point.

Geo. S. List, route agent Dominion Express Company, arrived down by the Islander Thursday night, and reported business in a flourishing condition along the line. Calgary is rapidly pushing ahead, and several large buildings are approaching completion. Golden is quietly waiting for spring and expects a mining boom. Revelstoke is progressing favorably, the new smelter being almost complete, and when finished will give new life to the mining country between the Rockies and Cascades. Kamloops is growing and a number of buildings have been erected there this season that any city might well be proud of. Ashcroft has just closed one of the most successful fairs ever held in British Columbia, and shows good signs of substantial progress.

Canmore, Alb., owing to the extensive deposits of anthracite and bituminous coal found in its vicinity, is at present attracting more attention than any place along the line of the Canadian Pacific railway, between Montreal and Vancouver, and as the supply seems inexhaustible there is every reason to believe that the operations of the coal companies now in the field, will make it in a few months a flourishing place, and a coal producing centre for the Northwest and the Pacific Coast trade, the supply for which would require the output of a dozen mines.

The Canadian Anthracite Coal Company are working an excellent vein about a mile from the station, and are getting out from 3 to 5 cars per day for shipment to San Francisco, but their intention is to commence operations on a larger scale in the spring, and to bring out a force of 400 miners and their families from the East, which means an addition of 1,200 or 1,500 to the already rapidly increasing population. They have several splendid seams on their property, and when once thoroughly in operation could supply the entire West.

Another company, under the management of Mr. C. Brinkerhoff, of St. Paul, is at work on a fine vein 14 feet 2 inches in thickness, and have attained a depth of over 300 feet. They also expect to put in more machinery, put on a large force of men and commence extensive work as soon as spring opens. Their coal has stood repeated tests made by Mr. Van Horne and several competent engineers, who pronounce it the best they have ever seen.

The St. P., M. & M. railway are said to be making a strenuous effort to reach the coal fields, coming in from Fort Benton via Fort McLeod and the Gap to commence. The Canadian Pacific railway make this their divisional point between Medicine Hat and Donald, and have a large round house and repair shops, in which about 100 men are employed, and from the large tract of land reserved by them it would be surmised that they intended to soon increase their works.

The Dominion Government have just finished a survey of their portion of the site on a plan something similar to that of Washington, D. C., having laid out a splendid system of squares, boulevards, avenues and drives which, if carried out by the other property owners, will make it the best laid out city on the continent.

Large deposits of iron ore are found within two miles of the place, and this, combined with the production of the coal, the development of the lead, silver and copper mines in the vicinity, will lead to the eventual establishment of smelters and manufactories, making it one of the busiest commercial centres west of Winnipeg.

KOOTENAY LAKE DISTRICT.

The Board of Trade Interview the Government Concerning Better Transport Facilities.

The President, Vice-President and Secretary of the board of trade, and Messrs. Charles Wilson and M. Lumby, forming a committee appointed to interview the Government on the question of opening up the Kootenay Lake mining district, waited upon the executive yesterday. The importance of providing adequate means of transport and travel into the new mining region was dwelt upon by the committee, and the Government were urged to hasten the building of a road connecting Kootenay Lake with the Columbia river. This, they claimed, would keep the trade of the region within British Columbia. At present nearly all supplies are obtained from the American side.

The Premier assured the committee that a survey of the road would be commenced forthwith, and that an engineer was even now under instructions to proceed to the ground and begin work. The constructing of the road would, without doubt, commence at the earliest possible moment in the spring. It was also understood by the Government that a line of railway would be built between Sprott's Landing and Nelson in the near future, with the object of attracting the growing trade of the region to its natural channel.
